SIX TIMES WED, LEFT MANY HEIRS

CHICKEN THIEVES IN COUNTY

Estate of Mrs. Madeline Koch

Subject of Controversy in Court.

Shotgun to Be Used to Guard Fowls-Tiller Is Out for times, and there are a number of relatives who claim shares in the estate, which is valued at about $15,000. The hearing will probably consume several which is valued at about $15,000. The which is valued at about $15,000. The hearing will probably consume several days, as there are many witnesses yet to be examined.

Those heirs who have brought the action to upset Mrs. Koch's last will have retained as counsel Messrs, Charles V. Meredith and Bosher & Drew. Messrs. L. O. Wendenburg and Hill Montague represent the defendants. Mrs. Koch was a native of Germany, and was a Miss Neurohr.

Mr. Eisen Giass, a farmer, who re-cently moved into Varina District, was severely kicked by a horse a few days ago, making an ugly wound on the side of his face. He is doing well, however, and will be out in a few days.

A large number of complaints of chicken thievery have been made recently from citizens in the northside settlements. Thieves have also been reported in the neighborhood of Lakeside Park. The citizens of these neighborhoods warn the thieves that they will be armed, and will not hesitate to defend their chicken-houses hereafter.

Another announcement of political interest was the notice received yesterday that Mr. W. W. Tiller, of Brookland District, would be in the race for the position of sheriff. Mr. Tiller is a prosperous truck farmer and has for some time operated a stall in the Second Market. This makes the third entry for the position of sheriff, now held by Sheriff Simon Solomon, Mr. L. H. Kemp, Commissioner of Revenue for Varina District, having announced his candidacy some time since. It is said that house-to-house canvassing has already begun, and all three candidates are putting up a stiff fight.

Politics in the County.

Mr. J. W. Barnes, supervisor from Fairfield District, Henrico county, announced yesterday that he would not be a candidate for re-election. It was said about the courthouse yesterday that Mr. Barnes proposed to sell out this dairy business in the county and engage in the feed business in Richmond.

Mr. Milam, manager of the Thomas farm, is a candidate for the position which Mr. Barnes has held for some time.
